Relative Clauses

It is used to give extra information about the nouns in the main clause, without starting another sentence. A relative clause starts with a relative pronoun.

who / that	Subject or object pronoun for people	That's the woman who bought my house.
which / that	Subject or object pronoun for ANIMALS or THINGS	The horse which Mary was riding is very friendly and beautiful.
where	Refers to a PLACE	We found the wood where I used to go.
when	Refers to a TIME expression	I will never forget the day when I graduated.
whose	POSSESSION for people, animals and things	The mother whose child is missing is very sad.

Examples:

She is the girl who loves singing.

Here's a shopping card that we can use.

They're the children whose grandparents live in Italy.

December is when we celebrate Christmas.

He goes on vacation to a place where he can swim in the ocean.
